The Annette Street Library held a public presentation entitled Bullying: What Parents Can Do, on Tuesday September 21, 2010 7- 8 pm. We arranged this presentation with Sunnie McFadden-Curtis, from benchboy productions who screened the audience 20 minutes of her one hour documentary "Bullying: A Culture of Silence", and then gave a 20 minute presentation that explored the silence around bullying and offered tools to educate and assist families. Following the presentation there was a Question and Answer period with Ms. McFadden-Curtis.

Ms. McFadden-Curtis is very knowledgeable about the topic of bullying, and her insight and expertise provided invaluable knowledge for the audience. Those who attended expressed gratitude for the opportunity to learn more about this very serious issue which confronts many youth.

I feel confident in saying that anyone interested in a program about bullying would be most satisfied with the presentation developed by Ms. McFadden-Curtis.

Sincerely,
